TO THE PRINTER.

SIR,

THE ſtrange and alarming lethargy into which we have fallen, and ſtill continue with regard to all judicial proceedings, muſt, I am ſure, give real pain to every one who has ſenſe to diſtinguiſh, and a heart to feel for the intereſt of his country. Some laudable attempts have been made in your's as well as other papers, to wake the gentlemen of the law, and make them liſten to the voice of the people; but whether their hour is not yet come, or their ſlumber is of ſo deep a kind, as to require the more animated exertion of the power of that reſpectable body; they are ſtill ſnoring over the liberties and properties of their fellow-ſubjects in the moſt ſupine indolence.---Many ſenſible arguments have been urged on this head, which ſtill remain unanſwered; and if there is any alteration ſince, it has been to add to their ſtrength and conviction.---I would aſk thoſe gentlemen what they propoſe, or expect from their preſent conduct? Do they think it will tend to procure a repeal of the act? They cannot ſay this, for it appears moſt probable, that the ſtopping buſineſs at all, will diſcover our timidity, and induce the favourers of the act to wait, and ſee whether it will not by theſe means inforce itſelf---but ſurely the continuing to do it can be of no uſe, even in the article of reſpect; for the queſtion will be decided long before the news of the reſumption of buſineſs can reach England, and the doing it, or not doing it, will make no difference when the orders are once given; ſo that we ſtop up the channels of juſtice, and do ourſelves a manifeſt miſchief, without there being the leaſt hope of advancing the remedy we ſo much deſire.---But perhaps the gentlemen of the law are afraid of the forfeitures---though they may not chooſe to acknowledge this reaſon.---But do they expect to eſcape ſafe and unhurt, amidſt the general ſhipwreck of their country and its liberties? Would they deſire ſo ignominious a diſtinction? If they do not,---let them generouſly and nobly embark on the ſame bottom with others, who have ventured all the pains and penalties of this terrible act, under the auſpices of the publick.---But perhaps it may be ſaid, that this ſtagnation is not owing to them: That judges & officers of government have equal ſcruples on this point.---To this I anſwer, that the firſt ſtage of all is, and even the active part of it in every ſtage, at the bar, and it is impoſſible judges can give relief upon complaints never made, or make orders upon ſubjects never brought before them---ſo that at preſent it clearly lies at the door of the profeſſion, and it may juſtly be charged with all the fatal conſequences that may enſue, if the gentlemen of it do not take care to exculpate themſelves, and do their parts in their reſpective ſpheres. For ſurely the captain's cowardice in a day of battle is no excuſe for the centinel's ſleeping upon guard; at this rate one fault would be productive of ten thouſand.---As every gentleman of the law I dare ſay at this time HAS A LEISURE HOUR, perhaps theſe obſervations may take a part of it.---To them I would offer an argument drawn from no leſs authority than Lord Coke, who lays it down as an undeniable maxim, lex non cogit ad impoſſibilia. The law forces no one to impoſſibilities. Now in this province, and ſeveral others, theſe impoſſibilia are required of us, and as we have no ſtamp papers, nor I hope ever ſhall have, becauſe we cannot do impoſſibilities, we muſt do nothing! or rather we are attempting an impoſſibility of another kind, which is to live in a ſtate of general outlawry, as to civil property. The profeſſion is called a learned one, I hope it will not forfeit its claim to this title, by falling into abſurdities ſo glaring.---I ſhall not, Sir, repeat thoſe arguments, founded upon conſtitutional principles, which have already been made uſe of; but will offer you one remark that ſeems obvious on this head.---Either the ſtamp act will be repealed or enforced.---There can be no medium, unleſs our own conduct has hinted it in England, if it ſhould be repealed, or if we could have poſitive aſſurances of it, there can be no difficulty; and I make no doubt we ſhall wonder at our own fears.---Upon the other hand, if it is reſolved to inforce it, do we not by our preſent conduct concur in the reſolution? Nay, we do more, we ſtrengthen the hands of its advocates. We cannot continue long in this poſture;---if it is determined never to make uſe of the ſtamps, what can, what ought to be done then, but immediately to ſhake off this cowardly indolence, and the ſooner the better? The gentlemen of the law have in moſt ages laboured under the ſame imputation with the biſhops, that they are the ready tools of arbitrary power, either meanly ſhrinking at danger, or ambitiouſly ſtriving for dignity and preferment.---Let not theſe aſperſions ever reach America;---rather let it appear, that thoſe who live by the laws, are the moſt forward in aſſerting them: They are ſuppoſed to be beſt acquainted with the nature of government, and the Engliſh conſtitution; how amiable will they appear in the eyes of their anxious countrymen, if their zeal is equal to their knowledge. I mentioned my Lord Coke a little before, as he is their oracle in the mazes of the law, ſo ought he to be their pattern in the cauſe of liberty.---In him the drudging lawyer not only brightened into the eloquent orator, but the zealous patriot.---He reſolutely oppoſed the undue exertion of the prerogative of the crown---and could he now revive in the perſon of an American, I make no doubt he would with the ſame ardour oppoſe the undue exertion of parliamentary power over the inhabitants of this country; or at leaſt he would be willing to ſhare the general fate of his country, and ſtand or fall with the common cauſe.

I am, Sir,

Your very humble ſervant,

New-Jerſey, Jan. 21, 1766. A. B.

LONDON, November 22.

LETTERS from Philadelphia, Boston, Rhode-Island, New-Haven, and other provinces in America, are full of the diſtreſſes to which the ſtamp-act is likely to ſubject them, and of the riots and tumults in conſequence thereof.

It is reported that the Right Hon. Lord Adam Gordon will ſoon be appointed an American Governor.

On Monday evening, and not before, arrived at his houſe in town, the Right Hon. Lord Adam Gordon, Colonel of his Majeſty's 66th regiment of foot, and Member of Parliament for Aberdeenſhire, from the Weſt-Indies, but laſt from New-York. With his Lordſhip came over John Johnſon, Eſq; ſon and heir to Sir William Johnſon, Baronet, his Majeſty's Superintendant of Indian affairs in the northern diſtrict of America.

It is ſaid ſome ſymptoms of the dropſy begin again to appear in a great perſonage, and it is feared his Royal Highneſs will ſoon be obliged to undergo a ſecond operation.

Wedneſday the Right Hon. Lord Adam Gordon had a conference with his Majeſty's Secretaries of State, when it is ſaid, his Lordſhip informed them of the preſent ſtate of North-America, and of the uneaſineſs of the people on account of the new ſtamp-act.

On Wedneſday evening a ſpecies of hemp, the natural production of America, was preſented to the Society of Arts, and referred to a committee, that a proper examination might be made of its utility in our manufactures.

The Right Hon. Mr. Pitt is expected at his houſe in Germyn-ſtreet next Friday, from Somerſetſhire, to reſide here during the winter.

Nov. 23. Yeſterday there was a great levee at St. James's, and alſo a privy-council, at which his Majeſty, the Right Hon. the Earl of Winchelſea, Preſident, and ſeveral principal Lords of the Council aſſiſted, which is ſaid to be on affairs relating to the plantations.

Yeſterday there was a great Board of Treaſury which ſat a conſiderable time.

John Johnſon, Eſq; ſon of Sir William Johnſon, his Majeſty's Superintendant for the northern diſtrict of America, has brought over ſome very curious Indian productions as a preſent to her Majeſty.

It is ſaid, Sir William Johnſon, fatigued by his unwearied application to the intereſt of America for many years paſt, intends ſoon to retire from public buſineſs, and that his ſon John Johnſon, Eſq; arrived from thence, will be appointed to ſucceed him in the ſuperintendentſhip of Indian affairs for the northern provinces.

The Hudſon's Bay fleet are ſafe arrived in the river, with valuable cargoes.

The reconciliation that has lately happened between two certain great perſonages, is to be concluded this evening with a ſupper and a ball.

We hear that the Sun-Fire Office only are ſufferers by the late fire, to the amount of forty thouſand pounds.

AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE.

BOSTON, January 27.

"IT is with the greateſt Concern His Majeſty learns the Diſturbances which have lately ariſen in your Province; the general Confuſion that ſeems to reign there; and the total Languor and want of Energy in your Government to exert itſelf with any Dignity or Efficacy, for the Suppreſſion of Tumults, which ſeem to ſtrike at the very Being of all Authority and Subordination amongſt you.---Nothing can certainly exceed the ill-adviſed and intemperate Conduct held by a Party in your Province, which can in no Way contribute to the Removal of any real Grievance they might labour under, but may tend to impede and obſtruct the Exertion of His Majeſty's benevolent Attention to the Eaſe and Comfort, as well as the Welfare of all his People.----It is hoped and expected that this Want of Confidence in the Juſtice and Tenderneſs of the Mother Country, and this open Reſiſtance to its Authority, can only have found Place among the lower and more ignorant of the People; the better and wiſer Part of the Colonies will know that Decency and Submiſſion may prevail, not only to Redreſs Grievances, but to obtain Grace and Favour, while the Outrage of a publick Violence can expect nothing but Severity and Chaſtiſement.---Theſe Sentiments you and all His Majeſty's Servants from a Senſe of your Duty to, and Love of your Country, will endeavour to excite and encourage: You will all in a particular Manner call upon them not to render their Caſe deſperate. You will in the ſtrongeſt Colours repreſent to them the dreadful Conſequences that muſt inevitably attend the forcible and violent Reſiſtance to Acts of the Britiſh Parliament, and the Scene of Miſery and Deſtruction to both Countries inſeperable from ſuch a Conduct.----For however unwilling His Majeſty may conſent to the Exertion of ſuch Powers as may endanger the Safety of a ſingle Subject; yet can he not permit his own Dignity, and the Authority of the Britiſh Legiſlature to be trampled on by Force and Violence, and in avowed Contempt of all Order, Duty, and Decorum.----If the Subject is aggrieved, he knows in what Manner legally and conſtitutionally to apply for Relief; but it is not ſuitable either to the Safety or Dignity of the Britiſh Empire, that Individuals, under the Pretence of redreſſing Grievances, ſhould preſume to violate the publick Peace."----

Laſt Thurſday Morning, about a Quarter after 5 o'Clock, a conſiderable Shock of an Earthquake was felt here; the undulatory Motion was from N. W. to S. E. without any perceptible Noiſe attending.

In a Letter from London, it is ſaid, "In the Duke of Cumberland, the King has loſt an able Councellor, and the Kingdom a moſt faithful Friend.---The preſent Adminiſtration are Friends to America, and will ſerve it."

BOSTON, Feb. 3. It ſeems, by the papers we have received by Capt. Hatch, that the ſtate of America is, in our mother country, a principal ſubject of political diſquiſition; and it is with pleaſure we can acquaint the publick, that many able advocates for the colonies have exerted themſelves much in our behalf: The abſurd and inconſiſtent poſitions advanced by the tools of oppreſſion ſeem, however, to be utterly unworthy of ſerious animadverſion, and accordingly, by many, are treated with that redicule and contempt which they juſtly merit.

Capt. Hatch turned away from along ſide his ſhip 35 or 40 tons of ſtamped paper, though ſtrongly ſolicited to take it on board, for which he was offered a large freight, and the caſh to be paid immediately. ---- This baneful commodity was carried by the waterman up and down the river, in order to be freighted in ſome other American ſhip, but in vain, they all nobly rejecting to have any concern with it: But afterwards, by its being carried on ſhore, and packed up in a different manner (ſaid to be in caſks) it was reported to be ſome how ſhiped on board the ſhip of one Capt. James Kirkwood, of Boſton, under the character of ſome other article.

There are letters in town from perſons of diſtinction on the other ſide the water, intimating that propoſals had been lately made to the miniſtry; that the twelve judges of England ſhould, upon ſolemn argument, decide the queſtion of right in the Britiſh parliament to impoſe taxes on the colonies; and at the ſame time that ſome of the principal merchants being aſked what was beſt to be done reſpecting the Stamp-Act; their advice was immediately to repeal it, as the preſent exigencies and temper of the colonies would not permit its execution. --- That it was the intereſt of Great-Britain to ſecure the colonies by the indulgence and lenity of its adminiſtration, rather than diſaffect them by reſtrictions on their liberties and trade.

The Linen Manufactory is brought to ſuch a pitch in the government of New-York already, that a piece of green linen was lately ſold in their market for a dollar a yard.

Friday laſt Capt. Hathorne arrived at Salem from the Grenades, and after he had been to the Cuſtom-Houſe and entered his veſſel, it was reported his papers were ſtamped, upon hearing of which the Select-men of the Town were applied to by a number of the ſons of liberty, deſiring them to ſend to the cuſtom-houſe for thoſe marks of ſlavery, that they might ſtic them, having had nothing of the kind among them till then. The gentlemen at the office readily delivered them up, when they were brought upon the parade and there expoſed to publick view, then carried to the London coffee-houſe, where were aſſembled a large company of reſpectable people (on the occaſion) who ſoon came to the following reſolves, viz. That theſe marks of tyranny were by no means to be lodged in a publick office. That they together with a Jack Boot (out of which the devil was peeping) ſhould be affixed to a long pole and carried thus between heaven and earth (as fit for neither) near to the common whipping-poſt; but ſome objecting that they did not deſerve ſo much honour as to be fixed to it, it was then agreed they ſhould be burnt nigh it, which was accordingly done, by a bonfire appointed for that purpoſe, amidſt the loud huzzas of the aſſembly, and the aſhes ſcattered in the air: after which the populace immediately diſperſed without doing any harm or making any diſturbance. A number of gentlemen returned to the coffee-houſe, ſpent the evening, and drank ſeveral loyal toaſts, ſuch as long life and proſperity to his majeſty king George the third; deſtruction to the ſtamp-act, &c. &c.

WILMINGTON, (North-Carolina) February 5.

The trade of this river is at preſent entirely ruined!---Beſides the three veſſels that have been ſeized by the man of war, ſeven others have, within this fortnight paſt, put into our capes; but on hearing of the above mentioned ſeizures, made off for other ports.----This is a ſtroke that muſt be ſenſibly felt by the people of Cape-Fear, as theſe ten veſſels would have carried off a vaſt deal of our tar and turpentine, which, in a few weeks, will be running through our ſtreets.

February 26. By a veſſel commanded by Capt. Linn, arrived at Point-Look-Out, in this province, in nine days from New-York, we have the following agreeable account, which we hope will ſoon be confirmed; (That is to ſay) Capt. Linn ſays, That before he left New-York, a veſſel was arrived there from Falmouth in England, who had ſailed in company with the packet, bound for New-York, but had out-ſailed her; the captain of which veſſel did aſſert, that that very packet had orders on board to the different Governors on the continent, to permit trade, &c. to be carried on in its uſual manner.----As Capt. Linn came down New-York bay, he met the above mentioned packet going up.

CHARLES-TOWN, MARCH 4.

THE following paragraph is taken from a meſſage of the hon. houſe of repreſentatives of the province of Maſſachuſetts-Bay, to his excellency their governor, preſented the 18th January, 1766. ---- "Your excellency ſays, that "theſe times have been made more difficult than they need "to have been, which is alſo the opinion of this houſe. --- "Thoſe who have made them ſo have reaſon to regret the in"jury they have done to a ſincere and honeſt people.---We "are glad however to find that the difficulty of the times is "in a great meaſure removed, and we truſt the province will "be ſoon reſtored to its former tranquility. Your excellency "is pleaſed to add reputation. The cuſtom-houſes are now "open, and the people are permitted to do their own buſineſs. "---The courts of juſtice muſt be opened,---open immediate"ly; and the law, the great rule of right in every county in "the province executed.---The ſtopping the courſe of juſtice "is a grievance which this houſe muſt enquire into, juſtice "muſt be fully adminiſtred through the province, by which "the ſhocking effects which your excellency apprehended "from the people's non-compliance with the ſtamp-act will "be prevented.---Nothing now remains but to ſupport the "king's executive authority in this province for which there "is ſufficient proviſion in the laws; and patiently to wait, "in hopes that the humble, dutiful and loyal application, "jointly made by the people of the continent, for the repeal "of the act will be ſucceeded.---And though your excellency "has told us that you have never thought it proper to expreſs "your ſentiments againſt the act, we have reaſon to ex"pect that as it is "a buſineſs in which you have had no "pretence to interpoſe," you have never taken, any ſteps to "prevent its repeal." ----- Since this ſpirited addreſs was printed, we are informed, that the courts at Boſton have been opened, and buſineſs carried on as uſual.

DIED.] Jan. 25. Captain James Barnes, of the Brigt. William, of Boſton.

Mr. PRINTER,

IF the incloſed does not come too late for this Day's Gazette, you will, by giving it a Place, greatly oblige, Your's, &c.

Tueſday Morning. A SUBSCRIBER.

I WAS at the Play laſt Night, and with infinite Pleaſure heard the GAMESTER and the ORACLE given out for Mrs. Douglaſs's Benefit; as that Lady has, during the two Seaſons ſhe has performed here, given general Satisfaction to her Audiences, I congratulate her on the Choice of two Pieces that cannot fail, I think, to fill her Houſe: Merit, of any Kind, ſhould be diſtinguiſhed by the Publick; but, more particularly, that of a Performer on the Stage; as they exert their Talents for our Entertainment, it is but juſt we ſhould ſhew our Senſe of it, by rewarding them in Proportion to the Improvement, or Pleaſure, we receive from them.

The GAMESTER was acted here laſt Seaſon, and, if I am not miſtaken, to a very crowded Audience; I ſhall, therefore, ſay nothing more in favour of it, but inform thoſe of your Readers, who were not preſent at the Repreſentation, that the Scenes are in domeſtic Life; the Characters ſtrongly marked; the Paſſions exquiſitely touched; the Cataſtrophe ſeverely juſt and the Moral ------; but the Words of the Author, in one Line, will convey it to them:

Want of Prudence is want of Virtue!

The ORACLE was tranſlated from the French by Mr CIBBER, and is, perhaps, the moſt delicate, ſenſible Petit Piece, on the Engliſh Stage; the Sentiments are tender, and the Language ſuch as we ſhould expect to hear from the Characters, Beings of a ſuperiour Nature to us Mortals: I am much deceived, if Miſs HALLAM in CINTHIA, which I preſume is the Character ſhe will perform, does not diſcover a greater Force of Genius, than the Audiences hitherto, notwithſtanding the Applauſe ſhe has received, have imagined her to poſſeſs.

As my only Motive for giving you this Trouble, is a Deſire of doing Juſtice to Merit, I ſhall pay very little Regard to any Animadverſions that may poſſibly be made, either on my Subject, or my Stile.

BY PERMISSION OF HIS HONOUR THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOUR.

By inſerting this Anſwer to the Queſtion propoſed in your Paper of 27th January, ſigned GNOMONICUS, you will lay me under a ſingular Obligation. W. R. N----r.

PLAIN's Declination and Reclination according to Queſtion.

As 18 is to 36, ſo is 36 to 72, and ſo is 72 to 144

18 mult. 144 eq. 2592 (Product of the two Extremes per Queſtion.

36 and 72 eq. 108 Sum of the two Means per Queſt.

1ſt Term - - 18° Declin.)
2d - - - - 36 Reclin.) of the ſuppoſed Roof.

Both by Trigonometrical Calculation and Projection I find the new Latitude to be 19 Deg. 05 Min. South. And, the Longitude Eaſt from Charleſtown, 15 Deg. 19 Min.

If for the above Latitude a Dial be made, the Meridian or Hour Line of 12, ſtanding 1 ho. 1 min. 16 ſec. of Time Diſtance from the Subſtile, ſuch a Dial will, in all Reſpects, Anſwer the Roof from which the Queſtion was drawn. REQUIRED the Poſition (i. e. the Declination and Inclination to the Horizon) of a Dial at Leverpool, that, when made, will be Horizontal at this Town, which, if properly fixed, will tell the Time of the Day at Leverpool; and required the new Latitude and Longitude where the ſaid Dial will be a prime Vertical, and alſo the Latitude where it becomes a South Decliner, and how much it declines in that new Latitude.

GNOMONICUS's Question in the South-Carolina Gazette and Country Journal, No. 7, answered by ENOC RIGHT.

BY an eafy Algebraick Proceſs, the Declination will be found 18 Deg. and the Reclination 36 Deg. from whence admitting the Latitude of Charleſtown to be 32 Deg. 40 Min. the Latitude of the Place required is 19 Deg. 17 Min. 48 Sec. South, and the Difference of Longitude 15 Deg. 21 Min. 35 Sec. Eaſt.

ANSWER to the Queſtion in No. 7, of the South-Carolina Gazette, & Country Journal, by BENJ. LORD.

SINCE when any Numbers are in a Geometrical Progreſſion, the Product of the Extremes is equal to the Product of any two Means that are equally Diſtant from the Extremes; we have in this Caſe (being only four Terms) the Sum of the Means equal 108, and their Product equal 2592; which, by an eaſy Algebraick Proceſs, will be found 36 and 72: Hence the Degrees of Declination are 18, and thoſe of the Reclination 36, and the Place where this Plain becomes an Horizontal one, will be in the Latitude of 19 Deg. 17 Min. 48 Sec. South; and Difference of Longitude, from the Meridian of Charleſtown, 15 Deg. 21 Min. 31 Sec. Eaſt. --- Note, I have ſuppoſed Charleſtown in the Latitude 32 Deg. 40 Min.

THE Subſcriber having lately purchaſed a Tract of Land in Chriſt-Church Pariſh, ſituated between Mr. Motte's Country Seat called Mount-Pleaſant, and Mr. Haddrell's Eſtate, propoſes to lay out the Front Part thereof into Lots, of about one Acre each, for the Uſe and Convenience of Gentlemen in Town and Country, who may chuſe to become Purchaſers: As no Spot in the Province can exceed this for Healthineſs and pleaſant Situation, and ſo remarkably well known, as ſcarcely to need a Deſcription; but, however, as there may be ſome perſons, who poſſibly may be in want of ſuch a Place of Retirement, unacquainted with it, a ſmall ſketch of ſome of the natural Advantages thereof may not be amiſs.

1ſt, Extraordinary good Water which, upon repeated Trials, Chymically and Domeſtically, has been found to equal if not exceed any in the Province.

2d, A pure and South Aſpect, without the leaſt Marſh on the Front; a full view of the Sea, and of the Shipping in Rebellion-Road, and of the Front of Charleſtown: Three Miles from Town, and Five from the Pariſh Church.

3d, The beſt Oyſters and Salt Water Fiſh in the Province are got near it.

An agreeable Houſe or two of Entertainment would be of infinite Service here, for the Accommodation of ſickly Perſons, and perhaps keep many thouſand Pounds yearly in the Province, which is now conſumed in other Parts of the World, by People who go Abroad ſolely for the Recovery of their Health. As this Spot has been always eſteemed the moſt healthy Part of the Province, the Advantages of a Retreat here, in Times when contagious Diſeaſes rage in Town, muſt be obvious to all.

As the Land will not admit of above eighteen Lots, there will be reſerved fifty Acres back for a Common as Paſturage for the ſame. Any Perſon inclinable to purchaſe, may treat with the Subſcriber, in whoſe Hands the Plan of the Lots may be ſeen.

A NEW EDITION.

Containing the Reaſons of its Re-publication, and ſhewing how INFANT BAPTISM is the grand Pillar of POPERY.

A REPLY to a DEFENCE of the Divine Right of Infant Baptiſm. By PETER CLARK, A.M. Miniſter at Salem, in a Letter to a Friend at Boſton, in New-England. To which are added, ſome Strictures on a late Treatiſe on Infant Baptiſm. Written by DAVID BOSTWICK, A.M. Miniſter of the Preſbyterian Church in New-York. By JOHN GILL, D.D.

Where may be had, lately publiſhed, by the ſame Author.

The Doctrine of the Wheels in the Viſions of Ezekiel. Price, Five ſhillings.

The Free Grace of GOD exalted in the Character of the Apoſtle PAUL. Price, Five ſhillings.

Baptiſm a Divine Commandment to be obſerved. Being a SERMON preached at Barbican, October 9, 1765, at the Baptiſm of the Rev. Mr. Robert Carmichael, Miniſter of the Goſpel in Edinburgh. Price, Five ſhillings.

Dr. GILL has lately ſeen a new Edition of Mr. Dickinſon's "Illuſtration of the Divine Right of Infant Baptiſm," publiſhed by ſeven Gentlemen, whoſe Names ſtand to a Preface prefixed to it, in which they declare they have made ſome Additions, in marginal Notes, and otherways, among which Dr. GILL obſerves the following Addition, p. 5. "St. IRENIUS (Irenæus) who lived about 114 Years after the Death of CHRIST, being the Diſciple of St. POLYCARP, who was the Diſciple of St. JOHN the Evangeliſt, ſays, in his Epiſtle ad Rom. Lib. v. the Church received a Tradition from the Apoſtles to adminiſter Baptiſm to little Children or Infants," which he charges as a Forgery, there being no ſuch Paſſage in all the Works of IRENÆUS extant. A like iniquitous Practice was uſed ſome years ago by Mr. SAMUEL FINLAY, with reſpect to the very ſame Paſſage, in a Controverſy he had with Mr. ABEL MORGAN of New-Jerſey. What a wretched Cauſe muſt Infant Baptiſm be to want ſuch Management as this! He defies the above Gentlemen, and the whole literary World, to produce, or point out any ſuch Paſſage in IRENÆUS, and indeed, any Book or Chapter of his, of ſuch a Title, in which this pretended Paſſage of his is ſaid to be.

Mr. PRINTER,

I AM very fond of sporting, and of DOGS of the kind, and though business will not permit me to make use of them that way, it is extremely hard I cannot keep one to protect my property, for, within twelve months past, I have lost not less than three dogs, worth 25 l. each. I am informed there are persons in and about Charlestown who have no other way to procure themselves pocket money but by dog stealing; to break a house, or go on the highway, is more honourable than such clandestine practices, for that requires spirit; therefore, in order to bring such spiritless thieves to justice, I will give five pounds reward to the person that will inform me of the thief, that, on the 20th inst. February 1766, stole a tan coloured rough BITCH puppy of the water kind, about four months old, answers to the name of MISS; has a small white spot in her forehead, and a tail about four Inches long. In case the said bitch should be offered for sale, I will esteem it a favour if the gentleman she may be tendered to, stops her; and if she, through mistake, followed any person, I will be obliged to him, if he informs his humble servant,

JOSHUA LOCKWOOD.

THE Sale of the Plantation on Edisto-Island, with the Negroes, Cattle, Horses, Sheep, Hogs, &c. belonging to me, and which was to be on Wednesday the 5th March 1766, is put off until further Notice.
